Preface

English Reader Class VII is an innovative course book for the students of class-7 of Chhattisgarh State. It is the second in the series, linked with the class VI textbook. The book is an attempt to provide good and authentic material in English language with the focus on learning the language for use in real life situations.

It is hoped that after finishing 6 years of learning English as a second language, students will start reading these texts with a sense of joy and fulfillment. The exercises are designed so as to provide practice in all the skills and sub skills of the language.

The material used in the content has been adapted from different original texts. We are thankful to all those who have allowed us to use their material. Texts have been drawn from a variety of sources—Newspaper items like ‘Making Best Out of Waste - Her Forte’ from ‘The Hitvada’ and ‘Unfriendly Nature’ from the clippings of various newspapers is an attempt to make the learners aware of Natural Disasters. ‘The Angel of Peace’ is a lesson on Mother Teresa, an international figure devoted to social welfare. Our learners should know about her simplicity and her way of life.

We are thankful to Oxford University Press for the poem ‘Our Little River’ from the book-The Oxford Tagore Translations: ‘Selected Writings for Children’ by Rabindranath Tagore, edited by Sukanta Chaudhuri. We are also thankful to the publishers for having permitted us to use the material like ‘The Missing Whistle’, ‘Hobble-Bobble’, ‘Jimmy Jet and his T.V. Set’, ‘Only God can Make a Tree’ and ‘From Tomorrow On’. Suggestions from teachers received during ‘Training Programme for Experimental Book’ has been included. We take this opportunity to thank all the participant teachers.

ETB (Energized Text Book) is an innovative effort by the Department of school Education and State Council of Educational Research and Training Chhattisgarh for the capacity building of teachers and students by providing extra text book related content that can be accessed both online and off line( after downloading). The objective of ETBs is to offer extra topic related content (in interesting audio- video and animated formats), assessments and teacher reference material on the same platform.

The State Council of Educational Research and Training would be grateful to all those who send us suggestions to improve this book. Any suggestions from teachers, parents, students, writers and publishers to improve the book would be welcome. We wait eagerly for feedback from the users of the book.

4. Hard to Believe

Share some amazing facts with your classmates.

One morning when Mummy was opening a new packet of detergent powder to wash Monty's dirty uniform, a small booklet peeped out of it. Mummy handed it to Monty. Monty was very happy to see it. There was a puzzle which she had to solve. The company promised a mystery gift for children who would win the contest.

By evening, Monty had searched the answers for all the questions and the puzzle was worked out quite fast. Monty asked her Daddy to send it to the company's address.... And it was sent.

Fifteen days later, Monty received her mystery gift—a beautiful little book. It was full of interesting facts and pictures. Monty was excited.

That weekend Monty's headmistress announced a competition on 'Amazing Facts'. Each class had to make a presentation. The best three selections were then put on the school display board. Monty's selection was also there!

CONTESTANT - 1

WINGED VICTORIES!

A stolen parrot was brought to the court as a witness in New Delhi.

It could identify its real owner by repeating the names of her children!

In 1936, a hen was trapped in a crate when a violent storm destroyed the town of Gainesville, Georgia. Forty seven days later, it was rescued and it had survived by eating its own eggs.

CONTESTANT - 2

MIRACLE MEN!

Francesco Lentini of Sicily, Italy, was a master musician. He lived in the 1930s. He was a famous soccer player. He had three legs and that was a great advantage for him as a player.

Liew Thow Lin of Gunung, Rapat, Malaysia, can lift more than 60 pounds of weight attached to a metal plate against his chest or stomach. Lin is 71 years old and is called the Magnet Man. Nuts, bolts and tools can be seen dangling from his bare chest. In 2001, he pulled a car hooked to a chain attached to a plate stuck to his chest. All the three sons of Lin and his two grand children also have the magnetic ability.

CONTESTANT - 3

'THE MUDDY SCENE !'

Scottsdale, Arizona, organizes the Mighty Mud Mania festival every year. People sling mud on each other. In the month of July, kids of all ages slip and slide over mud-filled tunnels. More than 240,000 pounds of mud is prepared for this event.

English-7

Elephants in Myanmar are very clever. They stuff the bells hanging around their necks with mud. They do this so that bells won't ring. They can then quickly steal bananas from farms at night.

[In Book-6, you've read that Alice dreamt of a strange land of animals. She fell into a rabbit hole and followed the rabbit to its dining hall.

There, she drank a liquid and became very small. After that.....]

Well, the next thing Alice found was a little cake; with the words 'EAT ME' marked on it. So, she sat there and ate it up. And then, guess what happened to her ! She grew and grew and grew. Taller than she was before! Taller than any child! Taller than any grown up person. Taller and taller! (Just look at the picture.) Which Alice would you like the best.

A tiny Alice, no larger than a doll or a very tall Alice touching the ceiling of the roof ? Poor Alice!

What do you think ? Was she happy to find herself tall enough to reach the table and get the key to unlock the door or to be too small to get through the door? Well, she could do that; but do you think she could get out of that tiny door? She could only just manage to lie flat, put her head down on the floor and look out through the door.

Poor child! She sat down on the floor and wept bitterly. She wept and wept and wept. Her tears ran down like a river and very soon there was a large pool of tears in the room.

Suddenly, the white rabbit entered the room. He was dressed up to go somewhere. He had a little fan and gloves in one hand and a watch in the other hand. He was looking at his watch, muttering to himself, ..... "I am late,

Oh, I am late!" He did not notice Alice. Alice requested him, "Please sir, ....."

The white rabbit was so frightened on hearing the voice, that he dropped his fan and gloves and ran away through the door.

Alice took a deep sigh, took up the fan, and began to fan herself. And lo!.... What happened ! With the movement of the fan she got smaller and smaller and in a minute she was just about the size of a mouse. In the pool of tears, a mouse was already swimming. Alice was also swimming with him.

How did Alice become small ?

They came out of the pool and both were wet. There were other creatures in that swimming pool like a dodo, a duck and an eaglet. Alice heard them talking about a party in the garden outside, and she thought.....

6. Unity Is Strength

Can birds be stronger than man ? Discuss.

Once a flock of doves flew far away from their home in search of food. Though they flew for miles and miles, they could not find anything to eat. Tired and hungry, they were flying over a forest.

The smallest of the doves was so tired that he said to the Dove King, “O, King, please can we rest a bit?”

“Oh, come, little one, be brave,” replied the king. “We are sure to find some food soon.”

So the little dove flapped his wings harder. He flew so fast that he found himself ahead of all the others. Soon he turned to them and said, “Come on, hurry up, I can see some food down there.”

The doves looked down, and there they saw, some rice scattered on the ground just below a big banyan tree.

Who had scattered rice on the ground?

“Come, my friends, let us eat” said the Dove King. Together the doves landed under the banyan tree and began to eat the rice.

Suddenly, a vast net fell over them. The doves were trapped in it.

“We are caught,” cried the king. “What shall we do now ?”

The next moment, they saw a big, fat hunter coming towards them. He was carrying a huge club.

“We must do something immediately, before the hunter kills us said the Dove King.”

All the doves were struggling to get out of the net. “How can we save ourselves?”, they cried.

“I have an idea”, said the king. “We must act together. We shall all fly up, carrying the net with us. Remember now, unity is our only hope.”

Each dove caught the net in its beak. Then all together, they flew up. The hunter was almost upon them when suddenly he saw his net going up into the air. He was amazed to see the unity among of the doves in their effort to get away. He ran after them, hoping that the net and all the doves would soon fall down. The doves saw him running after them. So they flew high over hills and valleys and went far, far away where the hunter could not follow them. At last, the hunter grew tired and gave up the chase.

What will the doves do next ?

When the Dove King saw that the hunter was no longer following them, he said, “Half our troubles are over. Now we must fly to the hill near the city of temples. There lives my faithful friend, a little mouse. He will certainly help us. He will cut the net with his teeth and set us free.”

“Yes, yes, let us go to the city of temples,” said all the doves in chorus and on they flew. Soon they reached the place where the mouse lived.

When the mouse heard the loud noise made by the flapping of wings, he was frightened and hid himself at the far end of his house. But the Dove King called out to him softly and said that he had come to ask for his help.

The mouse looked out. He was happy to see that it was his friend, the Dove King, who was talking to him.

“We have been caught in a trap set by a hunter,” said the Dove King. “We cannot get out of this net. When the hunter came, we flew together taking the net with us. Now, please help us. Cut the net with your teeth and set us free.”

“Very well, I shall set you free first.”

“No, no,” said the king. “Please free my followers first.”

The little mouse was wise. He understood the feelings of a king towards his subjects. So, he began to cut the rest of the net. One by one, all the doves were set free. And then, at last the Dove King was also set free.

All the doves were grateful to the little mouse for saving them. With a loud flapping of wings, they rose in the air and flew away.

7. Jimmy Jet and His TV Set

Who in your class watches TV the most? Find out.

I'll tell you the story of Jimmy Jet
And you know what I tell you is true.
He loved to watch his TV set,
Almost as much as you.
He watched all day, he watched all night
Till he grew pale and lean.
From 'The Early Show' to 'The Late Late Show'
And all the shows between.
He watched till his eyes were frozen wide,
And his bottom grew into his chair
And his chin turned into a tuning dial,
And antennae grew out of his hair.
And his brains turned into TV tubes,
And his face to a TV screen,
And two knobs saying 'VERT' and 'HORIZ'
Grew where his ears had been.
And he grew a plug that looked like a tail
So we plugged in little Jim.
And now instead of him watching TV,
We all sit around and watch him.

8. A Serious Talk

Name the pictures on this page.

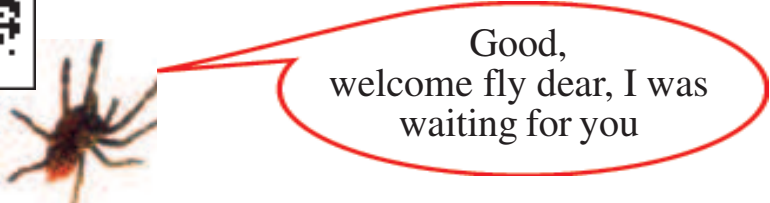

A spider sat quietly in the centre of its web. Suddenly,.....

Ah, there is a swing in the web again. I guess someone is in !

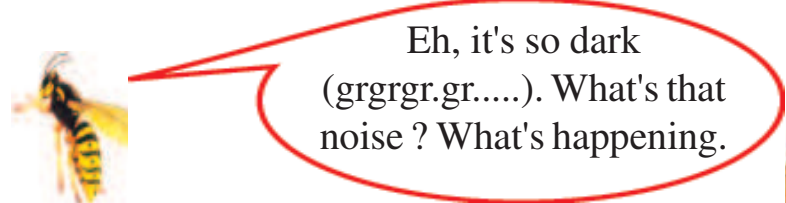

Oh God, again the cobweb, I'm caught!

Good, welcome fly dear, I was waiting for you

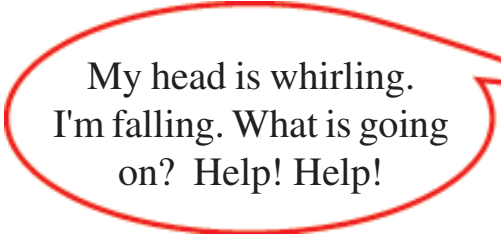

While this happened, a lady was cleaning her room. She sucked the spider, the fly and the web all in to the vacuum cleaner.

Eh, it's so dark (grgrgr.gr....). What's that noise ? What's happening.

Vaccum Cleaner

My head is whirling. I'm falling. What is going on? Help! Help!

By this time, the lady switched off the vacuum cleaner and everything became quiet.

Who's that ? I can't see anyone.

It's me, a poor spider. Who's there?

Oh, are you Miss Spider? I'm the fly you were going to eat a few minutes ago.

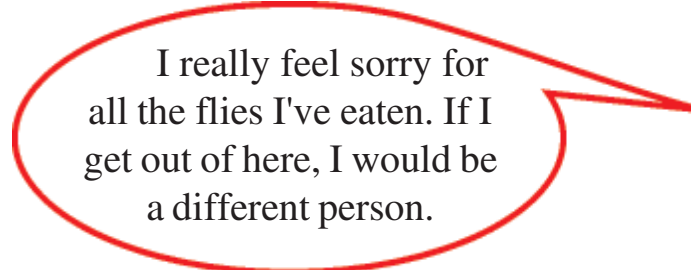

That's the rule. Spiders eat flies, birds eat spiders and cats eat birds.

Ah, no, it can't be so. I think we have been eaten up by something bigger than both of us.

It's so nice to hear you. Are we going to die?

I really feel sorry for all the flies I've eaten. If I get out of here, I would be a different person.

I wish there was a world where spiders and flies would be friends and insects would be free from fear!

I would like to drink honey like butterflies. It wouldn't be a bad idea to learn to eat berries.

English-7

Oh, I was also thinking the same.
If I live longer, I would change myself too. I won't go to rubbish heaps and sit on rotten things. I wouldn't walk on any one's plate with dirty shoes on.

That's interesting! I don't think we have ever had a chance to talk to each other and know each other's feelings like this before.

u...n...u...n... But...
but it's too late, or else
we could have changed the world.

What will happen next ?

In the meantime, someone took the bag of the vaccum-cleaner and emptied it on to the garbage heap.
The spider got frightened. But, in a short while, he recovered. It stretched its legs and began making a new web.

Fly dear, are you here?

Yes, Miss Spider
are you there?

Look, I've made a beautiful and
peaceful new web.
Do come and see it.

Boo..n...booh! This is where you have to be Miss Spider. It looks just like the old one. I'm going. I can't, wait. We were friends but after all I'm a fly and you are a spider.

And the fly was ready to take off.

But where are you going?

To a new rubbish heap and then walk on someone's lunch with my dirty shoes.

But, fly dear, we are friends now. Do forget the past.

Ah, me ..... but I won't be again!

The fly rubbed its legs clean and flew off! And the spider sat and eagerly waited for an insect to get trapped into its web.

9. Have a Cup of Nice Tea

Do you know what Assam is famous for ? Yes ..... it is famous for tea. Name some other places where tea is grown.

Tea is an evergreen shrub. The fermented, dried leaves are infused to make a beverage of the same name. It was seen in China as early as 2737 B.C. Later in 1823 it was found growing wild in North India. It grows to a height of 12" to 40". The young shoots and leaves are picked every 5 years. Once plucked, the young leaves are spread out for 4-15 hours. They are then broken up and dried and graded.

I am a tea shrub from the gardens of Kerala. I am 3 years old. My friends say I am very delicate, innocent, alert, always happy and beautiful. My height is 36" (approx). My parents told me that our relatives are present all over the world. Even though people all over the world make tea but the best manner of preparing tea is a subject of violent dispute.

How do you prepare tea ?

English-7

When I go through the cookery books for a perfect cup of tea, I find many ways of making it. Here are my own rules which I have deduced from the discussions with the elders of our family about tea and its preparation.

First of all, one should use Indian or Ceylonese tea. Now a days it is economical and one can drink it without milk but there is not much stimulation in it. Anyone who uses the comforting phrase "a cup of nice tea", means Indian tea.

Secondly, tea should be made strong. One cup of strong tea is better than twenty weak ones.

Thirdly, the tea should be taken in small quantites.

Fourthly, tea should be served hot. One should take the tea cups to the kettle and not the other way.'

Fifthly, after making tea, one should stir it, or better give the pot a good shake and allow the leaves to settle.

Lastly, one should drink out of a cylindrical cup.

Hope the next time you try to make tea, you would follow these golden rules.

10. Our Little River

Which is the river closest to your house ?

Our little river twists and turns
It's just knee-deep when summer burns,
How easy is it then to cross,
Cattle and carts just ford across,
The banks slope gently, though they're high,
And in the summer, always dry.

No dirt no mud : it all so clean,
The sand glints with a golden gleam,
And to one side, there stands a bed
Of 'Kash', with white flowers overspread,
Flocks of 'mynahs' gather there
And with their chatter fill the air,
While deep at night the jackals prowl,
Piercing the silence with their howl.

Groves of palm and mango trees
Upon the other bank one sees,
Nestling beneath their leafy shade
The village houses stand arrayed,
Along the bank the children play,
Splash each other, duck and spray,
Or sometimes, having had their bath,
Catch small fish in bits of cloth,
The village women by that spot
scrub with sand their pans and pots.
They wash their clothes and have their bath,
Then back they take the homeward path .

And then, often the rains begin
The river fills up to the brim,
It rushes then upon its course
In muddy whirls and deafening roars,
Upon the banks, among the woods
A call rings out in joyful mood,
And all the village wakes again
To mark the festival of the rain.

11. Grandchildren by Surprise

Is there any old couple in your village who live alone; without children or grandchildren?

Down the block at 1814 Beech Avenue lived Mr. and Mrs. Newton. She was short and round and neat. He was tall and thin and careful. Their house was as neat as a pin. Not even a shoe was out of place. Their meals were always on time. The neighbour's children knew that they should keep off their grass. When they stepped on it, Mr. Newton did not like it.

The Newtons didn't know much about children. But they did know that children make noise. They knew children are likely to mess up the house and spill things. The Newtons did not like anything to be messed or spilled. They liked everything to be just so.

Did the Newtons like children ?

The Newtons were busy doing things all day long. Together they knitted, baked, and built things. Mr. Newton made a tall clock that looked like a tree. It had a little bird that would fly out and sing sweetly. He made it all, and it was just right. Everything about the Newtons' lives was quiet and careful and neat.

One afternoon the Newtons got a letter. Mrs. Newton opened it right away for they did not get many letters.

Madrid
30 September 03

Dear grandma and grandpapa,

Surprise! One of these days soon you are going to get a surprise! There will be a knock at the door. When you open it, there we will be—all of us!

Love and kisses.

Your grandchildren

"How can this be?" asked Mrs. Newton.

"We have no grandchildren. Somebody is playing a joke on us."

Mr. Newton said, "It's not a funny joke. When they knock, we just won't answer the door. Children make a lot of noise and mess."

The next morning Mrs. Newton got out her mixer.

"I'll make some cookies for the grandchildren, if they come," she said.

The days went by and they waited and they waited for a knock. No one came. Finally, Monday afternoon, Mr. Newton said, "May be we read the letter wrong." He read it again. He looked at the letter a long, long time.

“We have made an awful mistake,” he said quietly. “This letter was for 1814 Birch Avenue. The grandchildren are not for us.”

They were both sad. It was very quiet in the little house.

Then one afternoon an idea came to Mr. Newton. He put an ad in the paper. The ad read:

Wanted

Grandchildren to borrow. Any size or age. Please come to 1814 Beech Avenue on Saturday morning at nine.

There were only five days before Saturday. The Newtons made toys and baked more cookies. Finally it was Saturday. They waited and waited, but no one came. They waited all morning. They had worked so hard and hoped so hard. But no one came.

Mr. Newton went out into the yard. A little boy came by on his bike.

Mr. Newton said, “Hello there. What’s your name?”

“Davey,” the boy answered. “My mom saw your ad in the paper where you wanted to borrow some kids. She says no one would ask for kids when they could have a neat and quiet house.”

“Not us,” said Mr. Newton. “We have too much quiet. Our house is too neat. We would like children to visit us. We have never had any children. We would like to borrow some. Tell all your friends.”

“You mean it?” asked Davey.

“I really mean it!” said Mr. Newton.

“I’ll tell them. I’ll ride all over.”

Almost before the Newtons knew it, there was a knock at the door. Children came!

Why did Davey ask, "You mean it?"

Some looked happy. Some were very quiet. In a short time they had all been hugged and welcomed.

Then there was another knock, and more children were on the porch.

“I am glad we made more cookies,” said Mrs. Newton.

Then more came, and more. Their house was full of children, of all sizes and ages! It was more than they had hoped for.

The ones who liked trucks and trains had trucks and trains to play with. The ones who liked dolls had dolls. They played with the doll-house. They were pleased that Mr. Newton had made all the dolls and toys for them. They had a wonderful time all afternoon.

English-7

The children left late in the afternoon. They promised to come back the next Saturday.

The neat little house was a mess. Even the clock went tock-tick. But Mrs. Newton looked very pleased. “Do you think there were enough toys and cookies for everybody?” she asked.

“There was enough of everything.” said Mr. Newton. “Toys and cookies and LOVE!”

12. The Chinese—Our Neighbour

What do you know about the Chinese? Share it with the class.

Chang increased his pace as he walked along the river Lo. He was far away from his native village. From here he could not see the great wall, which was 2,400 kms long. It was built by the first Chinese Emperor, Chin Shih Huang Ti. The wall was stretched along the fertile river Huang Ho.

He was walking beside the river towards the city of Loyang. It was New Year and everyone was in a holiday mood. The rich people in their silk dresses and shoes, the peasants in their straw sandals, even the bare footed barbarians were happy. Chang felt his own dress and thought about the silk – the great invention of his forefathers.

The Emperor himself had taken part last week in ploughing a furrow to begin the week-long celebration – the Festival of Lanterns. By the sunset, the whole town would be twinkling with little lamps lit inside a huge paper model of a dragon which would be carried along the street.

Why was everyone happy ? Was Chang happy too ?

Chang was now passing through the market place. Neat rows of stalls were selling all types of goods. The bronze utensils, iron tools, silk dresses, colourful paper toys, writing paper, wooden toys-so many things attracted him. The sound of music made him stop. Chang's mind began to wander. So many wonderful things were happening. Ts'ai Lum had recently developed a new writing material called paper, using wood pulp and rags! It would be much cheaper than writing on silk. There were so many things Chang wanted to learn – mathematics, politics and calculations about the position of the stars. He wanted to be a mandarin. But it could be more exciting to be a trader, to travel along the silk road to Bactria or Persia one day, or even sail in a ship to foreign lands!

What do we see when we pass through the market place?

English-7

There were so many shows going on in the market place! There were jugglers, acrobats, wrestlers, weightlifters, dancers, musicians..... the whole place was buzzing with activity. Chang stood there and watched the wonderful sight. He felt a surge of pride and happiness. He was a part of this wonderful great civilization.

14. The Angel of Peace

Identify the person in the picture. What do you know about her ?

It was Christmas time and there was a merry atmosphere all around. But the charity home which used to arrange Christmas party every year for the children, was passing through a state of crisis. It seemed that there would not be any party that year and the children would miss the special food on that occasion. Then suddenly a person came in and handed over an envelope to Mother. He said that Mother could use the money the way she liked. There were new hundred rupee notes in it and that year the children had the best Christmas party that they ever had.

This happened most of the times and at times when the door-bell did not ring, Mother was still able to collect money for that occasion. Her system of helping the poor was simplicity itself; she did what was possible. “She had no idea where the money would come from. But if a project was needed she would go ahead,” said one admirer.

The Mother we are talking about, is none other than Mother Teresa, who is known as the ‘Lady of the Slums’, ‘The Angel of Mercy’, ‘The Saint of the Gutters’, ‘The Gentle Mother’ and other such names.

Her first major project – a home for the destitute, sick and dying, was opened in 1952 when she saw an old woman dying on the street, eaten by rats and ants. She picked her up, took her to the hospital and refused to move from there until she was admitted. Then she went to the municipal authorities and asked for a shelter where the dying poor could die in dignity. She was provided a place near the Kali Temple Kolkata, and the following day she and her sisters and the dying- moved in. Today, some 150 people, many seriously ill and unacceptable elsewhere, are washed, fed and sheltered in this Kolkata home, called ‘Nirmal Hriday’.

Returning to the streets of Kolkata, she began, collecting children to teach them hygiene. She sought a centre for her work. When a family offered rooms on the top floor of their large house, she appointed some assistants, eventually 26 in all, who formed the nucleus of the 'Missionaries of Charity'. Now their number is more than 700 - mostly young Indians.

She lived a simple life, travelled by second-class on train, got down on hands and knees to scrub floors. She cherished simplicity and wore a shawl more darned than knitted. She saw in the poor what others often fail to see, their loneliness, their humour, their honesty and their courage.

"I am anxious for people to know of the greatness of the poor," she said. She once went to a Hindu family which had been starving and brought them rice. Before she knew it, the mother of the family had divided it and given half of the rice to the muslim family next door. She said that they were just as hungry as her family was. "I believe we need the poor as much as they need us," said Mother Teresa.

How do you help your neighbours?

The woman in the white sari with a blue border, Mother Teresa, till her death had no money, no property, no savings of her own. But her real wealth was Himalayan in size-7500 children in 60 schools, 9,60,000 patients cared for in 213 dispensaries; 4700 victims of leprosy in 54 clinics; 1600 abandoned or orphaned children in 20 homes and 3400 destitute or dying people in 23 homes, all this in 35 cities and towns in India and in a dozen other countries.

Today, even though she is not with us anymore, she is still loved by the poor and the neglected; respected by the Missionaries of Charity, admired by the Hindus, Muslims and Christians alike for her life long commitment to the poor that transcends all barriers.

15. The Glorious Whitewasher

How do you get help when you have lot of work?

It was Saturday morning and all the summer world was bright and fresh. There was a song in every heart. There was cheerfulness in every face and a spring in every step. The blossoms filled the air. Cardiff Hill was green with vegetation.

Tom appeared on the side wall with a bucket of whitewash and a long handed brush. He surveyed the fence and all gladness left him. It was a thirty yards broad fence, nine feet high. Sighing, he dipped his brush and padded it along the topmost plank; did it again. After repeating the job two or three times he sat on a tree log.

Why did Tom sit on a log after repeating the job two or three times?

Jim came skipping out at the gate with a tin pail; he was going to bring water from the town pump. Tom always hated this work to bring water from the town pump. He knew that Jim should come back after one or two hours. But Tom remembered that there was company at the pump. White and Negro boys and girls were always waiting their turns, resting, trading playthings, quarrelling and fighting.

Tom called Jim, "I will fetch the water if you will whitewash some." "Oh! No," said Jim.

"Jim, I'll give you a marble, even, I will show you my sore toe."

Jim was only human, this attraction was too much for him. He put down his pail, took the marble and bent down to see the sore toe. But lo! In a moment Tom was flying in the street with his pail.

What is meaning of 'flying' in the above sentence?

Tom was whitewashing, showing all his happiness. Little Ben was making noise with his toy- ting-a-ling-ling-ting-a-ling-ling- .....

Tom paid no attention. Ben went up to Tom with the apple he was eating. Tom's mouth watered for the apple. Ben said, "Hello! Hey! You are working."

Tom : Oh! It is you. Did not notice; which work you said?

Ben : That work.

Tom : Oh! That work, does a boy get a chance to whitewash a fence every day?

Ben : Let me do it.

Tom : No! No! It has to be done carefully.

Ben : Oh! Oh! I want to try, only a little, Tom.

Tom : Jim wanted to do it, but I did not allow .....

Ben : Oh! I want a little, Tom, take my apple, I will do it carefully.

Tom : Oh! Ok then, be careful.

He gave up the brush, took the apple, sat on the tree log, eating the apple peacefully.

There was no lack of material; boys came, requested him to whitewash paying a lot of their treasure.

Tom sold the chance of whitewashing to Billy Fisher for a kite, Johny Miller for a dead rat and a string to swing it with. By afternoon, Tom had the treasure of twelve marbles, part of a harp, a piece of blue bottle to look through a glass, a key that would not unlock anything, a tin soldier, a couple of tadpoles, six firecrackers, a kitten with only one eye, a brass doorknob, a dog collar - but no dog, the handle of a knife, four pieces of orange peel and a dilapidated old window frame.

He had a nice company, idle time, and the fence had three coats of whitewash on it.

The fence was whitewashed. Who did it?

The Risali-based artist's exhibition was inaugurated by the General Manager (Town Administration), R.K.Agrawal at Nehru Art Gallery the other day.

18. Dear Diary.....

Why should we write diaries? Discuss.

Last month Asha visited a lot of places with her parents. Here is a description in her diary. You would enjoy it.....

27th June 04

A very bad morning for me, for I had to get up very early. Mummy and Daddy didn't sleep all through. They were packing bags and making arrangements for our journey. But today I felt they are very partial. They never wake up Babloo, my three years old brother. They say he will mess up things.

We started for Jagdalpur at 7 o'clock in the morning. We were going to my Dadi Ma's house. In the train I slept for 2-3 hours. Both Babloo and I had a lot of fun. We ate, drank, sang, played and did everything we could. Babloo made sure that mummy wouldn't take rest. We had our dinner in the train.

How many members are there in Asha's family ?

29th June 04

Oh! what the an experience it was of sleeping in the train. I felt as if I was sleeping in a swing. Early in the morning at 6 o'clock our train reached Jagdalpur. Anup uncle and Tina aunty had come to the railway station to recieve us. Dadi Ma was waiting for us at home. We took some rest. I went with my uncle to the market. Babloo was busy with Dadi Ma.

In the evening at about 7 o'clock we went to visit the Chitrakut Waterfall. We reached there at 7:30. The waterfall was looking beautiful. The effect of lights added to its beauty. Babloo was the happiest person in the world. He was singing and clapping and was not ready to come back. We returned at 10 o' clock and had our dinner.

30th June 04

I had to get up early in the morning. But later on I enjoyed the day. Dadi Ma made my favourite 'Aloo paratha'.

In the morning at 9 o'clock we started for Kanger valley National Park. We took a taxi. My uncle made arrangements to cook food there. In the National Park, we saw many wild animals and birds in their natural surroundings like Cheetah, Neelgai, Deer, Wild pigeons and Peacocks etc. After lunch we took rest and played hide and seek, badminton, antakshari and many more games. We also danced to tunes of film songs. We took a guide from Kutumsar Naka (check post). We saw the Kutumsar caves. As we entered the caves, Babloo started crying as it was very dark there. He lost his sandals there. The huge 'Shivling' and the world famous blind fishes in Shankar kund are the attractions for the tourists. We also saw the 'Apsara Vihar'. Babloo was the busiest person running here and there without sandals. All the time he was holding my frock and saying "Didi humme bhi khilaona unn.....". On our way back we enjoyed icecream. I want to sleep .....

What are the places that Asha visited during her stay in Jagdalpur?

1st July, 04

All of us woke up in the morning. After taking bath we started for Dantewada. We enjoyed our journey very much as on both the sides of roads there were big trees, beautiful hills of Bailadilla and the Bastar the natural beauty of that region. The climate was also cold and pleasant.

The Danteshwari Maa's temple is situated where the two rivers Shankani and Dankani meet. There are three buildings in the temple— the Natya Mandal, the Sabha Griha and the Garbha Griha.

After offering our prayers we returned to Jagdalpur. All of us, Anup uncle, Aunty, Dadima, Subhash uncle, Swati (5 years) and Shanu (7 years) enjoyed the journey in a van. Really, we enjoyed a lot.

4th July, 04

In the morning we reached our Munki Mousie's house at Dongargarh. All through the way I slept in the van. They have a beautiful garden in their house. In the garden, there is a swing and a pond. Akshat, Munki Mousie's son and Babloo became friends. They spent the whole day in the garden swinging and watching the fishes in the pond.

How did the family go to Dongargarh?

5th July, 04

In the morning again, we got up early and went to offer our prayers to Bamleshwari Maai. There are 1000 steps. There is one more temple at the foot of the hill. It is called Chhoti Bamleshwari Ma. After the 'Darshan' at 9 o'clock we returned from the temple.

In the afternoon we went to Durg to our Nani Ma's house. During dinner all of us sat together. Babloo also wanted a plate. He went to kitchen and brought a plate for himself. After dinner we all sat together and talked for a long time. Babloo fell asleep while he was in Nanima's lap listening to everybody. I was very happy today.

28th Jan., 2001

More than 13,000 people were killed, at least 15 lakh injured and 7.8 lakh houses destroyed in Gujarat in the earthquake of 26th Jan, 2001.

An earthquake is a series of shocks that results from sudden movements below the surface of the earth. Earthquakes take place when large plates of land collide with each other releasing energy. The strength of an earthquake is measured using a Richter scale by an instrument called Seismograph.

Indians Flee Monsoon Floods

Parts of Assam and the neighbouring state of Arunachal Pradesh remain cut-off from the rest of the country, as flooding waters have destroyed transport links. Flood affects Northeast India every year. In August 2000, floods killed 100 people and left 70,000 people homeless in Assam alone.

A flood occurs when water flows or rises above its normal level. It can be caused by heavy rainfall, high tide with a storm or melting snow flowing into the river. The Ganga and the Brahmaputra rivers cause the largest floods in India. Other areas in the west, east and south are also attacked by floods. Floods are the results of soil erosion, the silting of riverbeds or collapse of a dam.

What should you do if heavy rains cause flood in your area?

Do (✓)	Don't do ( x )
Know the route to the nearest safe shelters. Keep medicines, strong ropes, radio, torch, batteries. Store clothes, dry food, fresh water, kerosene, candles and match boxes in polythene bags in a kit. Listen to the local radio and watch TV for warnings. Drink boiled water.	Don't eat food that has got wet in flood waters. Do not remain on empty stomach. Do not get into water of unknown depth and current. Do not drink tapwater without boiling.

Drought Affects

26th Nov., 2000

Every year, villages near Bikaner in Rajasthan, spend the period between July and September in waiting and praying for rains. The villagers don't have money to buy even food. The drought directly or indirectly affects all people.

Drought happens when an area receives lesser rainfall than normal levels. It is a condition of acute scarcity of water, food, fodder and employment. The serious results of drought are crop-failure and lack of drinking water.

What can you do to fight serious results of drought?

Do (✓)	Don't do (x)
